MARGUERITTE AOZASA

Head Coach
First Season
Santa Clara '12

Former Stanford assistant coach Margueritte Aozasa was hired in December 2021 as the sixth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history.

Aozasa coached Stanford to great success during her seven seasons (2015-21), helping guide the Cardinal to NCAA Championships in 2017 and 2019 and Pac-12 titles from 2015-19. The 2018 team also reached the College Cup. Stanford's record during Aozasa's time on the Farm was 125-19-8, with the Cardinal posting a +318 goal differential (412 goals for, 94 goals against).

Two Stanford athletes won the Hermann Trophy in three consecutive years from 2017-2019 - Andi Sullivan (2017) and Catarina Macario (2018, 2019). Four Cardinal players were selected as the No. 1 pick in the NWSL Draft in four of the last five years – Sullivan in 2018, Tierna Davidson in 2019, Sophia Smith in 2020 and Naomi Girma in 2022 – and a nation-leading 10 have been selected in the first round.

As a recruiter, Aozasa brought in multiple Top 5 recruiting classes, include the No. 2-ranked class of 2022. She coached six current U.S. Women's National Team players through their collegiate careers – Sullivan, Macario, Davidson, Smith, Alana Cook and Jane Campbell. Additionally, Aozasa coached three players who played on Women's Champion League teams – Macario (Olympique Lyonnais), Cook (PSG) and Kyra Carusa (HB Koge).

Aozasa and the Stanford coaching staff were honored as the 2016 NSCAA Pacific Region Staff of the Year, and Aozasa was selected to the United Soccer Coaches' 30 Under 30 Class in 2018-19.

In addition to coaching at Stanford, Aozasa has been the ECNL Head Coach for 10 years at MVLA Soccer Club, which is ranked by Top Drawer Soccer as the No. 6-ranked youth club in the country. Her 02 and 03 MVLA ECNL squads were Champions League teams with a combined 35 players currently on NCAA Division I rosters.

Aozasa was a four-year starter under head coach Jerry Smith at Santa Clara University from 2008-11, playing at midfield and center back and serving as team captain from 2010-11. A WCC All-Academic team member, she graduated from Santa Clara in 2012 with a major in psychology and minors in public health and Spanish. In 2020, she earned a Masters in Coaching and Athletic Administration from Concordia University, Irvine and received her U.S. Soccer "A" Coaching License.

She is one of just five Asian American women currently serving as a head coach for a NCAA women's soccer team.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Margueritte is a proven winner in NCAA Soccer, having coached Stanford to two national championships in the last five years and five Pac-12 titles in seven years. Her clear ability to relate to, develop and lead young women stood out during the process, and we're looking forward to having her guide this storied program."
- UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Director of Athletics Martin Jarmond

"Margueritte will be an outstanding leader for UCLA Women's Soccer. She is an amazing person and has the highest level of integrity. Margueritte possesses incredible knowledge of the game and has a strong work ethic. I am very excited to see her get such a great opportunity at UCLA."
- Stanford's Knowles Family Director of Women's Soccer Paul Ratcliffe (UCLA '94)

"I have been lucky enough to grow up watching Margueritte play and seeing her coaching career blossom. With her abundant amount of success she has brought to Stanford for so many years, I have absolutely no doubt that she will bring her world-class coaching skills, leadership and winning success to UCLA. Margueritte continues to pave the way for female soccer coaches in the United States, and I cannot wait to see all the success she brings to the UCLA soccer program."
- U.S. National Team Defender and 4-Time All-American Abby Dahlkemper (UCLA '14)

"Margueritte is very bright, a wonderful communicator, a great manager of people, has a deep passion for our sport, and, like all great coaches, is constantly looking to learn and innovate. She was not only a great player for us, but she was also a great captain for us. In college sports, particularly soccer, it's essential to have great student-athlete leadership. Margueritte was that coach on the field for us and was actually already coaching while she was still playing. She will no doubt be able to mentor great leaders within the UCLA soccer program. Coaching at Stanford obviously gives her a great deal of experience in how to compete in the Pac-12 and the tendencies of the other coaches in the conference, which will be key to helping UCLA repeat as conference champs."
- Santa Clara Head Coach Jerry Smith

"Margueritte is a fantastic coach and mentor. I am thrilled about this opportunity for her and for UCLA Women's Soccer. Margueritte has been immersed in the game in a variety of ways throughout her life, and it will all translate to her success as a head coach. I'm excited to see how she further develops players, leads the team, and adds to the university's reputable soccer history. It will be hard for me to root for UCLA, but with Margueritte there, you will have a fan in me."
- U.S. National Team Midfielder and 3-Time Stanford All-American Andi Sullivan

GOF BOYOKO

Assistant Coach
First Season
UCSB '13

Former professional player and UC Santa Barbara player and coach Gof Boyoko begins his first year on the UCLA women's soccer coaching staff.

"I could not be more excited to add Gof to our staff here at UCLA," said head coach Margueritte Aozasa. "His experience in elite environments will elevate the professionalism of the program, and his enthusiasm for the game is infectious. Most importantly, though, he genuinely cares about the success of each individual associated with our team."

Boyoko was on the UCSB women's coaching staff from 2017-2021 and served as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator for the team the past four seasons. He helped guide the Gauchos to Big West Tournament appearances in 2017, 2018 and 2021, along with an appearance in the 2018 Big West final. Boyoko also served as associate head coach at Santa Barbara City College from 2014-16, leading the Lady Vaqueros to their first Final Four appearance in 2016 and to the Western State North Conference championship in 2014. His SBCC teams went 39-16-12 in his three seasons.

As head coach of the Santa Barbara Soccer Club from 2012-22, Boyoko has helped multiple athletes move on to collegiate soccer. The club won the Surf Cup championships in 2018 and 2019 and was the Coast Soccer Premier League Champion in 2017.

Boyoko has extensive experience in player development and analytics, as well as recruiting both nationally and internationally.

A former team captain for the UCSB men, Boyoko led the Gauchos in scoring in 2013 with eight goals, including five game-winners, and 19 points. He received All-Big West honors and led the team to a NCAA Tournament appearance. He previously played at Auburn Montgomery and earned NAIA first-team All-America honors as a sophomore in 2011 after scoring 17 goals across 19 games. Boyoko was a member of the INF Clairefontaine Academy in France and has additional playing experience with Paris SG, Lille OSC, Real Mallorca and the French Youth National Team.

MOLLY POLETTO

Assistant Coach
First Season
Utah '15

Molly Poletto begins her first season in 2022 as an assistant coach and will work with the Bruin goalkeepers and team.

"As soon as I accepted the job here at UCLA, I thought of Molly," said UCLA head coach Margueritte Aozasa. "Her attention to detail and ability to relate to players is top level. She will add incredible balance to our staff and will enhance everyone's experience through her work ethic and commitment to the program."

Poletto served as the goalkeeper coach at Missouri (2019-21) and at Boston University (2017-18). In 2021, she helped lead Missouri to a fifth-place finish in the SEC, an improvement of nine spots from the previous year. At BU, the Terriers won the Patriot League in 2018, finishing with an 11-7-4 record and an unbeaten 7-0-2 mark in league play. Poletto was instrumental in guiding the goalkeeping unit to a combined 11 shutouts in 2018. In her first season at BU, her goalkeepers posted a then-record 10 shutouts as the Terriers finished with a 10-8-3 record and reached the Patriot League Tournament semifinals. Under Poletto's tutelage, BU surrendered just 0.86 goals per game and the goalkeepers combined for a .798 save percentage.

After injuries cut her playing career short, Poletto turned to coaching, serving for three seasons as an undergraduate assistant coach at the University of Utah and then a volunteer assistant coach in 2016, when she improved her unit's goals against average from 1.21 to 0.65 with 10 shutouts and a .860 save percentage.

A native of Englewood, Colo., Poletto holds a USSF "B" license and served as an instructor for the USSF "E" licenses. She graduated cum laude from Utah in 2015 with a degree in communications and a minor in psychology and completed her Master's degree in sports psychology in the spring of 2017.

CHELSEA TUDELA

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
UCLA '14

Chelsea Tudela, a member of UCLA's 2013 NCAA Women's Soccer Championship team, is returning to UCLA as a volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins.

The former Chelsea Braun played at UCLA from 2010-13 and saw action in over 50 games in her career. She helped the Bruins capture the 2013 Pac-12 and NCAA titles, and earned Pac-12 All-Academic honors in 2012. She graduated in 2014 with a degree in Communication Studies and earned the Athletic Director's Academic Excellence Award for making the Director's Honor Roll every quarter she was at UCLA.

Tudela is the Youth Academy Director, coach and content creator at Tudela Futbol Club Los Angeles, an all-girls youth soccer club in the heart of Los Angeles that provides opportunities and high-level training and experience to girls of all socio-economic situations. She also runs a fully-subsidized training program for girls 5-8 years old, called "Today U Dream It" (TUDI).

"I am so happy to welcome Chelsea back to Westwood," said UCLA head coach Margueritte Aozasa. "She brings an incredible ability to connect with our student-athletes through her experience here as part of a national championship team. Also, Chelsea is a pioneer in player development and will give our staff another element in supporting our players' growth."

"Knowing the impact the program had on me as a player, I'm hungry to dive in with this incredible coaching staff to create something truly special," Tudela said. "It's been surreal to join the Bruin family again, and I can't wait to get started. I can't stop smiling!"

#110

Their goal, their motivator, their mantra all season was 110. The number of NCAA Championships UCLA would have if they won their first. The women's soccer team was one of the few teams on campus that had yet win a championship, their place in the famed trophy room in the Hall of Fame non-existent.

That would change in 2013 when the Bruins, despite a difficult playoff path that saw them face three No. 1 seeds and the last two NCAA champions, won their first-ever title, 1-0 in overtime against Florida State.

UCLA breezed through the regular season with a 17-1-2 record, winning the Pac-12 title and taking a No. 2 national ranking and a 15-game unbeaten streak into the postseason, their only loss coming in game five of the season, 1-0, to North Carolina.

The Bruins, however, were denied a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament and had to face Pac-12 rival Stanford, the 2011 NCAA Champion, in the Round of 16 before traveling to Chapel Hill for a quarterfinal matchup with 2012 NCAA Champion North Carolina. UCLA posted its third-straight NCAA shutout by beating Stanford, 2-0, turning the tables on a Cardinal team that had eliminated the Bruins in three of the last four tournaments.

With one of the last two NCAA champions taken out, the Bruins set their sights on the most recent one, the No. 1-seed Tar Heels. Unlike the first meeting earlier in the year, where UCLA goalkeeper Katelyn Rowland was making heroic save after heroic save as the Tar Heels outshot the Bruins, 23-6, this quarterfinal match was more evenly-played, with each team taking 11 shots. The Bruins had eight of their 11 shots on goal, forcing UNC goalkeeper Anna Sieloff into a career-high seven saves, while UNC tallied four shots on goal, all of which were saved by Rowland. Taylor Smith broke the scoreless tie early in the second overtime, scoring a minute and a half in. Sarah Killion sent a great through ball to Smith, whose shot was initially saved by Sieloff. Smith, however, followed through on the rebound, scoring far post to end the match and give UCLA its first-ever win over North Carolina.

At the College Cup for the ninth time in school history, the Bruins had another No. 1 seed to face in the semifinals - No 1 overall seed Virginia. The Cavaliers took a 1-0 lead in the 73rd minute after a rare defensive miscue by the Bruins led to an empty net goal by Makenzy Doniak. UCLA fought back, however, to tie on an Ally Courtnall goal with less than five minutes remaining in regulation, and forced overtime, where the Bruins hit the post twice but failed to score, sending the game to a penalty kick shooutout. Rowland came up big in the shootout, stopping the Cavaliers' third and fourth kicks. With the Bruins holding a 3-2 advantage after successful makes by Sam Mewis, Sarah Killion and Lauren Kaskie, Rosie White stepped up for the potential winner. The 2012 New Zealand Olympian calmly stepped up and put the shot into the back of the net to send the Bruins to the championship game.

The 2013 NCAA Champions won UCLA's 110th NCAA title

In the final, it was UCLA against yet another No. 1 seed, Florida State. The Bruins controlled the majority of possession in the first half, but were unable to generate any chances in the early going. Smith had the first serious chance of the match for either side in the 30th minute, controlling a free kick from Killion in the box before wheeling around and putting a shot on frame. The ball beat Florida State keeper Kelsey Wys but clanged off the crossbar and out of play, keeping the match scoreless.

Then right before the half, UCLA almost went ahead again when Caprice Dydasco took a long shot that forced Wys to make a diving save. Smith gathered the rebound and put a shot towards the far post, but once again the ball bounced off the post and away from danger, sending the teams into the locker room tied at 0-0.

The Bruins continued to keep the ball in their third of the field at the start of the second half, and created another good scoring opportunity in the 59th minute. Darian Jenkins did well to keep the ball on the left side of the Seminole box and was able to cross the ball back to the top of the box to Jenna Richmond. Richmond one-timed a shot on goal, but once again Wys was there to make the save. Kodi Lavrusky had another shot at putting the Bruins on top in the 66th minute, when a cross from White trickled to the front of the goal to Lavrusky. She could not get a foot on it though, and Wys eventually gathered the ball for Florida State.

UCLA continued to push forward, consistently keeping the possession. In the 87th minute however, the Seminoles nearly took the lead when Kristin Grubka headed a long throw-in on net. Defender Megan Oyster came up big for the Bruins though, heading the ball off the line to prevent the goal. From there, neither side could find the back of the net before regulation ended and the match went to overtime.

In the first overtime, Killion had a chance to end the game for the Bruins in the 96th minute when she controlled a corner and took a shot towards an open net after Wys came out. Her shot was cleared off the line by the Seminoles, however, and the match stayed scoreless. Then in the 97th minute, Lavrusky finally handed the Bruins the title when she took a terrific through ball in the box from Oyster and finished far post for her seventh goal of the year.

UCLA head coach Amanda Cromwell became just the second women's soccer coach ever to win the NCAA title in her first season with a team, as well as only the second female coach to win the title, joining Becky Burleigh, who led Florida to victory in 1998.

Courtnall, who scored the game-tying goal in the semifinal, was named the College Cup's Most Outstanding Defensive Player and selected to the all-tournament team along with Killion, Oyster and Rowland.

The Bruins continued to enjoy the fruits of victory when they returned home to Los Angeles, making an appearance on the Tonight Show with Jay Leno and being honored at the State Capitol and City Hall. Defender Abby Dahlkemper won the Honda Award for soccer, becoming the first Bruin ever to take the honor, and she was also named the NSCAA Scholar All-American Player of the Year and a finalist for the MAC Hermann Trophy. Head coach Amanda Cromwell was awarded Soccer America's National Coach of the Year.

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

Wallis Annenberg Stadium

The UCLA soccer teams will begin its fifth year of play at Wallis Annenberg Stadium, which officially opened its doors on Aug. 17, 2018 with a thrilling 1-0 victory by the UCLA women over Long Beach State.

The stadium, which seats 2,145, is located at the previously-named North Athletic Field, where the Bruins practiced and played selected home games from 1993-99. The new stadium was made possible thanks to a $5 million lead gift from the Annenberg Foundation. The grand opening completed the first phase of the stadium project and included grandstand seating and press box on the west side, scoreboard and stadium lighting. Expected upgrades in future phases include a spectator amenity building to house restrooms and concessions; a day-of-game locker room building that includes two team locker rooms and two auxiliary locker rooms; and a shared team meeting room and equipment storage.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field.

Drake Stadium, which was the Bruins' home stadium from 2000-17, now serves as the teams' practice facility. Prior to moving to Drake Stadium, the Bruins played home games on North Athletic Field, Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time home record is 270-37-20.

UCLA soccer set a new attendance record on Nov. 3, 2017 when a NCAA regular season record 11,925 fans packed Drake Stadium to see the Bruins win the crosstown showdown over USC, 3-2 in overtime.

Martin Jarmond

Director of Athletics
3rd Year at UCLA
UNC-Wilmington '01

Martin Jarmond, a nationally recognized leader in college athletics, has built an impressive track record of competitive excellence, innovative strategy and student athlete success. A two-time recipient of Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award with 20 years in sports administration spanning three conferences, Jarmond is guiding UCLA to new heights through his culture of an E.L.I.T.E. mindset – Energy, Leadership, Integrity, Toughness and Excellence. Jarmond's results-driven strategies combined with a relentless work ethic to elevate UCLA Athletics creates an exceptional experience for student-athletes and fans alike.

Jarmond was hired on May 19, 2020, as UCLA's Alice and Nahum Lainer Family Director of Athletics, becoming the ninth athletic director in school history. Jarmond made an immediate impact on the Bruins, jumpstarting the Voting Matters Initiative, the first of its kind in the country which assisted student-athletes in discovering the tools needed to exact meaningful change through civic duty. Jarmond engineered a partnership between UCLA and Nike/Jordan Brand, becoming only the fifth Jordan brand school in the nation and the first partnership with Nike in UCLA history. The six-year agreement between UCLA and Nike provides for 22 of the 25 UCLA varsity sports with Nike apparel, while football, men's basketball and women's basketball don Jordan Brand. Jarmond exhibits a strong commitment to mental health awareness and his emphasis on diversity and inclusion was recognized in a 2021 SBJ award for being a national leader in diversity and inclusive hiring. He was the Pac-12 Conference representative to the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for 2021-22.

Through Jarmond's instrumental leadership, UCLA Athletics is at the forefront of a rapidly changing collegiate athletics landscape. In the burgeoning area of Name, Image and Likeness (NIL), Jarmond launched new support for student-athletes, including "Westwood Ascent" a comprehensive NIL program designed to support UCLA's student-athletes to build their personal brand and maximize their NIL opportunities. In addition, the launch of Westwood Exchange, a free business registry designed for companies, donors, fans and alumni that want to connect directly with UCLA's student-athletes interested in capitalizing on their NIL, ranked in the top 3 in the country.

In June of 2022, Jarmond worked closely with campus leadership while playing a critical role in UCLA Athletics applying and being accepted for future membership in the Big Ten Conference. One of the most important announcements in the history of UCLA Athletics, the Bruins will join the Big Ten Conference in 2024.

Comprehensive work by Jarmond and his staff throughout the pandemic, ensured all Bruin teams could compete safely during their 2020-21 seasons. UCLA teams captured four conference titles and the men's water polo team brought national title No. 119 home to Westwood. The men's basketball team embarked on a remarkable journey which led to an appearance in the 2021 NCAA Final Four and the program's first national semifinal appearance since 2008. UCLA finished 13th nationally in the 2020-21 Learfield IMG College Director's Cup. These athletic achievements were balanced by record numbers of student-athletes earning spots on the conference all-academic squads, with 49 individuals earning a perfect 4.0 GPA for the Winter Quarter, and 131 student-athletes earning their UCLA degrees. For the first time ever, the Bruins produced multiple winners of the NCAA Elite 90 Award. Four student-athletes were recognized by CoSIDA as Academic All-Americans.

Jarmond came to UCLA from Boston College, where he served as the school's Director of Athletics for three years. During his time there, he orchestrated the Eagles' first-ever strategic plan, a comprehensive five-year goal to advance the program by fostering student-athlete formation, strengthening competitive excellence, increasing external engagement and enhancing facilities. The strategic plan was supported by BC's first-ever athletics-only capital campaign, at the time, the largest campaign of any Atlantic Coast Conference institution at $150 million. Jarmond hired high-impact coaches in football, women's basketball, softball, volleyball, swimming & diving, men's soccer, women's soccer and fencing. Jarmond served on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee and on the John McLendon Minority Scholarship Foundation Board of Directors.

Prior to joining Boston College in 2017 and becoming the youngest athletic director of any Power Five institution at age 37, Jarmond previously served as deputy director of athletics at Ohio State, moving up the ranks after arriving as an associate athletic director for development in 2009. During his time at Ohio State, he was the lead administrator for a variety of sports, including football and men's basketball, and directed external and internal relations and day-today operations. He also had responsibility for football scheduling, served on the NCAA Division I Women's Golf Committee, and was a member of the inaugural College Football Playoff National Championship Advisory Group and the Rose Bowl Advisory Committee. As Ohio State Athletics' chief advancement officer, Jarmond helped raise more than $120 million between 2010-2012.

Jarmond was also an assistant athletic director for development for seven years at Michigan State, where he served on the athletic director's executive leadership team. He was a key member of the $1.2 billion "Campaign for MSU" development team and a liaison between Michigan State's university development and alumni association leadership. Jarmond led the efforts to implement Scholarship Seating in football and Courtside seating in men's basketball.

A native of Fayetteville, North Carolina, Jarmond, 42, earned a bachelor's degree in communication studies from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. A two-year captain of the men's basketball team, he led his team to the program's first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 2000 and earned Colonial Athletic Association All-Academic honors in 2001. He holds both a M.B.A. and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University. Jarmond is married to Dr. Jessica Jarmond, a dentist. They have three daughters: Scarlett, Savannah and Serena.

Erin Adkins

Asso. Athletic Director
5th Year at UCLA
Arizona '06

Erin Adkins begins her second full-time season as sport administrator for women's soccer.

Adkins, UCLA's associate athletic director of compliance since 2018, is responsible for the oversight of all athletics compliance operations and student services. She is currently a member of the National Association of Athletics Compliance Coordinators and Women's Leaders in Sports.

From 2015-2018 Adkins worked at Vanderbilt University as the assistant athletic director of compliance. In that role, she was responsible for handling oversight of all compliance related to NCAA and SEC regulations. Adkins also served as sport administrator for the women's swimming and diving team.

Prior to Vanderbilt Adkins began her career at the University of San Diego, serving there from 2009-15. Adkins began at San Diego as a legal intern. Upon graduating law school, Adkins was hired full time as the assistant director of compliance and academic counselor. By 2012, Adkins was promoted to assistant athletic director, where she began overseeing all aspects of NCAA and WCC compliance. Adkins also served as sport administrator for the men's and women's tennis and golf programs.

Adkins graduated from the University of Arizona with a bachelor of arts in 2006 with a major in political science and a minor in business administration. She earned her juris doctorate degree from California Western School of Law and was accepted into the California State Bar in 2010. A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Adkins grew up spending a great amount of time at the Rose Bowl and Pauley Pavilion.

Adkins is the Women's Leader in Sports (formerly NACWAA) 2015 recipient of the Judith M. Sweet Commitment Award, as well as the University of San Diego 2011 Women of Impact Honoree.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
16th Year at UCLA
Stanford '77

A champion of high-quality, accessible public higher education, Gene Block has served as chancellor of UCLA—overseeing the university's three-part mission of education, research and service—since 2007.

Under Chancellor Block's leadership, UCLA has greatly enhanced its position as a national leader in enrolling undergraduates who come from low-income backgrounds, have been traditionally underrepresented in higher education or are among the first in their families to go to college. During his tenure, UCLA has also become the most applied-to university in the nation, has advanced in rankings in nearly every discipline, has significantly deepened its international partnerships and engagement with alumni, and now receives more than $1.6 billion annually in research grants.

An expert in neuroscience, Chancellor Block holds faculty appointments in psychiatry and biobehavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA and the UCLA College. His research focuses on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms.

Before becoming UCLA chancellor, Block spent 29 years at the University of Virginia, where he was most recently vice president and provost. He has served on the executive boards of several leading organizations, including the Association of American Universities and National Collegiate Athletic Association. He is currently chair of the Association of Pacific Rim Universities and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.
